

Janice Lemaire

I am from Atlanta and graduated from Georgia State University with a degree in Music Education. I have been a band director in Cobb and Gordon counties in public and private schools. My husband and I formed a small music store in Cobb County where we taught, rented, and repaired instruments for 20 years. The store was recently closed, but I continue to teach privately from a home studio and Jennings music.

I have performed with several community bands over the years, both on saxophone, oboe, and clarinet. We live in Woodstock with our three adorable kitties.

My hobbies are gardening, painting, and writing.
